

ow, oa, o-e

Read the text and circle the words that belong in the ow family.

The boys spoke to each other. They had hope that they could find the lost dog. They heard the dog stuck in the snow and grabbed a piece of rope near a goat. They got the dog and had to phone their home. Their parents were on a boat and said when you grow up you will have a dog of your own.

Write these words into the correct column:

ow	oa	o-e