

Stand Up Stand Out by Kay Woodward

Edith Cavell 36 - 39

1) What was the event that made Edith Cavell decide to become a nurse?

---

---

1 mark

2) Complete the table below with one piece of evidence from the text.

	Evidence
Edith Cavell was a terrific nurse.
The Red Cross hospital did not discriminate between people.

2 marks

3) Read the following extract:

A century later, it's suspected that Cavell was actually working for the British intelligence services. As well as smuggling people, the network was also a way of communicating top-secret information about the enemy. But whether she was an actual spy or not makes little difference.

Do you agree with the underlined sentence? Explain why you agree / disagree.

---

---

---

---

2 mark

4) Find and copy a sentence that tells us that Belgium was taken over by a military force.

---

---

1 marks

5) P. 37. Which of these are fronted adverbials of time. Tick all that apply

In 1914,

During the First World War,

Slowly,

A century later,

Nevertheless,

2 marks

6) On page 37, find a phrase that means: 'to not pay attention to something likely to cause harm or injury'.

1 mark

Irena Sendler p.52 - 54

7) Describe an event which shows that Sendler was brave?

---

---

---

1 mark

8) Copy the sentence that tells us Sendler would do anything she could to help people escape the ghettos.

---

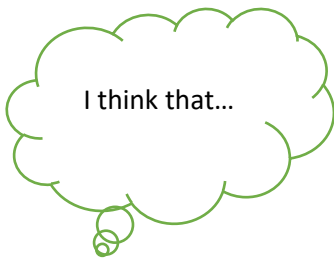

---

---

---

1 mark

9) a) What do you think about the living conditions of Jewish people under the Nazis?

1.
_____
_____
2.
_____
_____

2 marks

b) What does the text say that can support your answer?

1.
_____
_____
2.
_____
_____

2 marks

10) What information in the text tells us that Sendler cared about other people?

---

---

---

1 mark

11) Tick the one box in each row to show whether each statement is fact or opinion?

	Fact	Opinion
Edith Cavell was a spy.
Edith Cavell was foolish.
Sendler enjoyed her job as a social worker.
The Nazis treated Jewish people badly.

2 marks

12) Find a phrase on page 54 that means: 'to officially order someone to be killed as punishment for a crime.'

1 mark