Listen to our story 'Oh no George!'

<https://www.booktrust.org.uk/books-and-reading/have-some-fun/storybooks-and-games/oh-no-george/>

Stop reading at the page where George is sad. Think and talk about what George could do to make things right. Why is George sad? Can you think of time when you have been sad? What did you do to feel happy again? Share your ideas in drawings and writing.

Tell an adult in your family what YOU think the answers to these questions are:

Who is God?

Why do you believe in God?

What is he like?

If you do not believe in God that is OK. Still answer the questions

Thought of the day

"Reading is dreaming with eyes wide open."
